

NEED AN HONEST, UNBIASED EVALUATION OF YOUR MANUSCRIPT?
WONDERING HOW YOUR STORY MIGHT FARE ON THE MARKET?
NEED HELP GETTING YOUR QUERY LETTER WORDED JUST RIGHT?

THERE'S NO NEED TO FEAR . . .

WRITERMAN
IS HERE!

WRITERMAN AND THE STAFF AT EVERGREEN SYNDICATE
ARE HERE TO SAVE THE DAY WITH ALL YOUR WRITING, EDITING, AND PUBLISHING NEEDS.

Fuller served as editor of *Monongah: The Tragic Story of the 1907
Monongah Mine Disaster*, which placed third in the 2008 Annual Independent Publisher Book Awards.

SERVICES:

Conceptual editing	Line editing
Proofreading	Query letter evaluation and editing
Mentoring/consulting	Design assistance
Manuscript evaluation	Publishing broker

Fuller is the only person in West Virginia to have won Arts and History Fellowships for writing in all three literary prose categories (fiction, nonfiction, and memoir).

Evergreen Syndicate now offers publishing broker services, including a wide range of design, editing, and marketing choices, to help you find the best and most affordable way to publish and market your book. Most companies offer cookie cutter packages, but Evergreen will provide only what you actually need—no matter how much or how little—while guiding you safely through each step of the publishing minefield.

www.evergreensyndicate.com

ACCOLADES:

Called the "Best editor in the state" by Pat Conner, Director of West Virginia University Press.

"Geoff made the whole process possible. He anticipated my needs and desires, and helped make Rea of Hope: The Story of Betsy Fletcher Rea a book to be proud of." ~ Sally Fletcher Holliday (May 2008)

COUPON

Attendees of the 2008 WV Writers conference can choose from one of the following.

50% DISCOUNT on any service valued at $250 or less

FREE query letter evaluation

FREE manuscript evaluation (craft or market oriented, 10 pp. or less)

FREE writing tutorial tailored to your needs

See Geoff during the Conference to schedule your session, or contact him at (304) 744-4556 or fuller.geoffrey@gmail.com.

