

Appalachian Visions

An annual series of lectures, discussions, and performances

Spring 2007 Series

New Gospel Singaleers

Thursday, March 1, 7pm

Warm your spirit with inspiring traditional and contemporary gospel from this acclaimed Raleigh County group. The choir from First Baptist Church of White Sulphur Springs will also perform.

Irene Moser

Tuesday, March 20, 7pm

The founder and guiding spirit of Appalachian Visions, Professor Emerita Irene Moser, returns to share her unique perspective on our region's culture and heritage.

Kirk Judd

Thursday, March 29, 7pm

Experience performance poetry by a well-known West Virginia writer.

Catherine Pancake

Tuesday, April 3, 7pm

Award-winning filmmaker Catherine Pancake joins us for a screening of her latest work, Black Diamonds: Mountaintop Removal and the Fight for Coalfield Justice, with discussion following.

B. J. Gudmundsson

Tuesday, April 17, 7pm

The 2005 West Virginia Filmmaker of the Year will screen and discuss two of her short documentary films.

Annual Folk Festival and Bluegrass Concert

Saturday, April 21, 4pm

Our annual celebration brings together the best of music, crafts, food, and more! Local favorites The Lillys take the stage at 7pm.

All events are held at the John W. Eye Conference Center on MSU's Beckley campus and are free and open to the public.

Support Appalachian Visions

To sign up for the mailing list or add your financial support, e-mail us at appyvisions@mountainstate.edu or call 304.929.1455.